

SEMINAR ON AGEISM

March 2nd 2023

Venue: the meeting hall of the Dutch Senate in The Hague

The Jan Nagel Foundation in co-operation with The Institute of European Democrats (IED) organizes a seminar on ageism. By the involvement of experts in this field we aim to offer you an interesting meeting, with presentations from Sweden, 'Europe' and the Netherlands and the possibility for questions/discussion with the experts.

Participation is open for everyone interested in the subject and free of charge. The number of participants is limited and will be granted based on time of reception of your emails.

Program:

1.30 p.m.	- opening by Gerrit Jan van Otterloo (chairman of the JNF and former MP in the Netherlands) and moderator of the seminar. - opening words by a board member of IED – Institute of European Democrats
2.00	Presentation by Julia Wadoux Policy Coordinator at AGE Network Europe
2.45	Presentation Barbro Westerholm – former MP Sweden – about: Current situation of older people in EU countries. Problems, solutions and actions to be taken
3.15	Coffee break
3.45	Presentation Dr. Istvan Serto-Radics (Hungary) - The political relevance of Ageism in Hungary
4.15	presentation by A. Hoogenboom from the Dutch College of Human Rights – figures etc. about complaints on ageism
4.45	Panel discussion + questions
5.15	Closure + drinks/bites

Please confirm your presence by sending an e-mail to Harry Claassen, general secretary JNF: secretary@jnf50plus.eu Your registration will be reconfirmed by e-mail.

There is also the possibility to join the meeting via internet. When you send the e-mail to the above address and add that you will attend this way, you will receive an answer which gives you also the internet address for 'online' attendance on March the 2nd.

For those who will be present on the location a simple lunch will be provided - from 12.30 AM

Information about JNF – <https://www.jnf50plus.eu>

Information about IED - <https://www.iedonline.eu>